What's Wrong In Living Within Our Means?

"If the people of the district decide not to approve the millage, we have but one choice and that is to LIVE WITHIN OUR MEANS, make do with what we have got, and adjust our educational program to fit within the funds available."

The above statement is an excerpt from a letter being sent to all residents of the Van Buren School District over the signature of the Van Buren Board of Education. The letter is aimed at encouraging voters to approve a millage increase to finance the operation of local schools.

And while our interpretation may be wrong, we get the impression the Board makes this statement in more or less an apologetic manner. Regardless of the Board's meaning, we feel this brief statement pinpoints in dramatic fashion a basic fallacy in our thinking today. This applies not only to school systems but to governmental agencies large and small, as well as the very foundation of our country -- the American home.

Just what, may we ask in all sincerity, is wrong with the basic philosophy of LIVING WITHIN OUR MEANS?

CERTAINLY all of us want to live better; all of us are striving for higher goals and that is as it should be. But in this credit card era and a standard of living which has reached a peak many Americans never deemed possible, isn't it far past time we pause to examine carefully some of the fundamental principles on which this country was developed.

And what better place to start this appraisal than in our local school system, one of the very few remaining agencies over which local communities still maintain some measure of final control.

I am sure the Van Buren Board of Education is completely sincere in its request for additional millage and its assessment of the need. BUT, how much better we would have felt (and we believe most residents of Van Buren would share this feeling) had the Board, instead of seemingly apologizing for facing the possibility of having to live within its means, come right out and most emphatically declared it is going to live within its means!

OVER THE years The Enterprise-Roman has consistently urged the support of every millage proposal advanced by the Van Buren school system. We have done this because we firmly believe top quality educational facilities were never more important than in this period of our history. We have not changed our thinking on this point but we cannot in good conscience say again to the people of this school district "give the schools anything they ask."

Next Monday, March 4, eligible voters in Van Buren school district will be asked to make a decision on two millage propositions. One asks approval of the renewal of a four and one-half mill levy. The Enterprise-Roman strongly recommends that local voters approve this renewal proposition.

The second asks approval of an additional five and one-half mill levy. To this we say "whoa," at least at this time. To us at this point there seems to be too many unknown variables. For example, how much additional revenue is the school district going to realize from upgraded property valuations, what is the state school aid decision going to be, and what trimming can be done in our local schools to operate within current budget limitations?

We are not unaware of the many problems confronting boards of education today, and we are sympathetic with them. Teachers are going to demand further salary increases, general costs of operation are sky-rocketing. Similar problems face virtually every governmental and private firm these days. And in all instances where funds for operation depend on tax revenue, it appears to be the easy way out to ask John Q. Taxpayer to assume the burden of these rising costs.

Well, we believe Mr. Taxpayer has just about reached the limit of taxable endurance. This general trend has been reflected in rejected millage requests in several area school districts in recent weeks. We are not saying local people are going to absolutely refuse to pay more taxes to support their schools, but we do predict they are going to take a longer, harder look at millage requests of any form before putting the money on the line.

WE FEEL STRONGLY they are going to demand FIRM proof that all the fat has been trimmed from operational costs, that every penny of tax revenue is being utilized to its utmost advantage, that frilly programs not completely necessary to a quality educational curriculum are carefully screened, that salaries are commensurate with performance, that pay raises are based solidly on merit and that their school system operate not on the Utopian dream of what it would like, but WHAT IT CAN AFFORD!

Special School Millage Vote Set Next Monday

Van Buren Requests Approval of 10 Mills

Voters to Rule on Renewal And Mill Hike Propositions

By HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE--The Van Buren Public School District will hold a special millage election on Monday, March 4.

Voters will be asked to approve two Millage Propositions for school operations for the next five years. (1969-1973).

Millage Proposition No. One calls for renewal of a four and one half ($4.50) mills of the assessed valuation, as finally equalized, of all properties in the school district.

Millage Proposition No. Two, calls for an increase school millage of five and one half ($5.50) on the assessed valuation of all properties, as finally equalized.

THE TOLL mill levy of 10 mills sought by the Board of Education would be assessed against each $1,000 assessed property valuation as state equalized, and if approved would be collected for the new school year (1969).

Members of the school board, school administrators and officials have all urged voter approval of the millage requests.

The mill levies sought are solely for school operations and not for building or school site purchase, the school board reported.

School administrators contend that to continue with current school programs and educational services and to meet increased costs of operating the school system both the millage renewal and millage increase are "vital."

The present school tax rate for property owners residing in the school district is 23.40 mills per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized.

Both Harold O. Wetherell, school superintendent and James Egan, school's business manager, reported that increased costs in school operations that include salary boosts for teachers and school personnel had used up all surplus funds.

Last year's surplus funds in the amount of approximately $213,000 was used up to meet these increased costs. The school board reported that it expected to end the present school year, June, 1968, with no surplus but with a balanced budget.

Egan recently reported that in order to continue the same level of teaching and educational programs, $550,000 would be needed for the 1968-69 school year which is not now available. The mill levy requests totaling 10 mills is for this purpose.

ROAR OF THE CROWD--nearly raised the roof Friday night at Romulus High School. And indeed there was good reason, for the Romulus Cagers won over River Rouge. The game was won by a score of 63 to 61, a narrow margin of only 2 points in one of the most breathtaking see-saw games of the year. It is being furnished by the

Under the program, the answering service received a list of phone numbers of certain Township officials and administrative staff members who could be reached in the event

Wetherell Explains School Board's Reasons For Seeking Millage Hike

By HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE -- A detailed explanation as to reasons behind Van Buren Board of Education's request for additional millage in next Monday's school election was presented last week by Harold O. Wetherell, school superintendent.

In commenting on the School Board's position, the superintendent also answered some questions frequently heard on why the need for a millage hike at this time.

At the outset, Wetherell said: "All that we are trying to do is run a good education program for the boys and girls of the school district. We certainly are not asking for an excessive amount of funds but only the funds required to maintain current school programs, educational service and teaching personnel."

NEXT MONDAY, voters will be asked to approve two Millage Propositions: one for renewal of four and one half mills and the other for an additional mill levy of five and one half mills, or a total of 10 mills for each $1,000 of assessed property valuation, state equalized.

Wetherell, in presenting his explanation, said that a mill, based on the present school district's property valuation of $112,000,000, is $100,000, as tax collection runs about 95 per cent and figures presented were current estimates.

He said that increased costs that included salary boosts granted to teachers and other school personnel last year used up some $200,000 in surplus funds. But he added that at the end of the present school year, June, 1968, there will be no surplus but the budget will be balanced.

"We had been asked to go into deficit spending but this the School Board has refused to do. This is distasteful to me but to get needed school operating funds is to go to the people of the school district; it is their school system. Under present laws, the only means of school revenue is millage assessment and state aid."

IN EXPLAINING the need for the additional millage, Wetherell said:

HISTORICAL MONUMENT? Some people go to Rome, Athens, Cyprus and Lebanon to view ruins, etc., thereby complicating our balance of payments problem. That is unnecessary because they can start right here in Belleville. For instance, at Five Points a partially ruined building, located on a separate island, is easily accessible to any visiting potentate or V.I.P. It's historical significance eludes me, but I am sure it must have important relation to the past. It was last used as a pump house but I hardly think that would qualify it as a historical monument. So reports V.L. Lockrow, local real estate broker and appraiser, who has requested City Council to dispose of the no longer used pump house.

The Lenten Season

(Editor's Note: The following article is the first in a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Allen B. Rice, II, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Belleville.)

LENT - 1968

Intermingled with the calendar of the year is the calendar of the Christian year. In early winter there is the observance of the birth of Jesus Christ and all the attendant celebrations that get attached to it in the public stream of life at Christmas time!

At the approach of near-spring we begin the observance of Lent, which leads to the death and resurrection experiences of Christ, and which has great significance for his present-day followers.

It is appropriate to think of Lent as a time of personal meaningful sacrifice. The new Random House Dictionary suggests that sacrifice has as its first meaning the offering of an animal, plant or human life in homage to a deity.

WE DO believe that Jesus Christ gave his life as a sacrifice for the whole world, and so we take the period of Lent to recall and observe a special period of personal sacrifice!

The Dictionary goes on to record the third meaning of sacrifice as, "the surrender . . . of something prized or desirable for the sake of something considered as having a higher or more pressing claim".

In the long history of Christian faith observance of Lent, there has been a heavy reliance upon the "surrender" of the "giving up" of various items of food or pleasure or of activity that produced fun or frivolity.

This may involve cigarette, candy, alcohol, or other certain kinds of food. Activities of festive nature may be also curtailed and stress will be put upon additional services at church or in a more vigorous observance of fasts, prayers and other meditative services.

Perhaps, it would also be an important time to search in the life of Jesus for clues to His behavior so that we might be willing to sacrifice our more self-centered and egotistical styles of life. What might we discover?

WE WOULD discover that he was willing to challenge the religious and civil authorities! He took direct action

Military Funeral Today For SP. Kenneth Fulton

SUMPTER -- Full military services and burial for United States Army Specialist Five Kenneth L. "The point is that we can't cut salaries and to meet the same salary boosts next year we still have to have the amount of surplus used ($200,000) or two mills of the additional millage asked. Even if we cut services or go into debt, the salary raises would still have to be met."

He also stated that the School Board anticipates increased costs in school merchandise and services based on the latest Department of Commerce Reports. They showed increases of three and one half to six percent in costs of school equipment, supplies and services in the coming school year.

In addition to this, teacher salary increments ranging from $240 to $540 and which are automatic each year called for the expenditure of another $200,000.

THE SALARY increments falling due, he said averages $400 per teacher. Another two mills would be required for this expense.

As to the remaining one and a half mills of the additional millage hike plea, Wetherell stated that the reasons behind this is to cover improvements in starting salaries in order to be in line with comparable school districts and to meet other anticipated operational expense requiring another one and one half mills or $150,000.

On the millage renewal, Wetherell stated that it is needed to stay where we are. He pointed out that the Board of Education has always kept faith with the voters by raising only the amount of tax needed to meet budget requirements.

"If we don't need the five and one half mills, the school board will raise only the amount needed," he said.

IN 1966 the total property valuation in the school district was $100,000,000, a decrease of some $4,000,000 from 1965. Last year (1967) the property valuation was $112,000,000.

"This year's budget is based

SP-5 is survived by his wife, Belle; daughter, Julie; his parents, Lige and Edna Fulton; and sisters, Marilyn and Charlene and brother, Jonathan, all of Sumpter.

Mr. Fulton was a graduate of Lincoln Consolidated High School. He was an outstanding scholar and athlete at the school. He was president of the senior class at Lincoln (1964); and a member of the football, basketball and track teams.

He was also the recipient of the Willie Heston Sports Hall of Fame Award as the school's top athlete and student.

He attended Eastern Michigan University and worked at the State Hospital before entering the Army in 1966. He would have been discharged in August this year.

THE INITIAL phase of the complex would embrace 210 dwelling units to be built along 1,000 feet of Belleville Lake frontage and on a section of some 1,500 feet south of the I-94 Expressway, west of Beckley road.

The Association stated that since the rezoning "is a very controversial issue," it should be decided by the people.

Louis A. Toth, township supervisor, recently urged objectors to be careful when considering a referendum vote, saying that:

"All there has to be done in Van Buren is to have a referendum vote on zoning. Nobody would want to invest in the Township for fear that every rezoning plea would result in a referendum."

He pointed out that some 30 officials of the township including Wayne County have approved the rezoning. "They all can't be wrong."

He added that the apartment complex would bring to the Township in excess of $400,000 a year. The developer reported that the additional tax revenues would be closer to $800,000 when the complex is completed.

When the complex is completed, of an emergency, after office hours and on weekends. The program also coordinates fire calls to the Township's two fire stations.

It would end "confusion" as to what number to call when wanting the fire department.

"There is no substantial change as far as the citizens are concerned," Hogan said, "the telephone numbers to the Fire Department are the same. These numbers are OX 9-2211 for residents living on the north side of I-94 Expressway and OX 7-3456 for those on the south side of the Expressway."

"In the past some callers wanting the Fire Department called the Operator who is not expected to know what fire station covers what areas. We asked that residents still call their number or any of the two phone numbers, the answering service, equipped with maps showing areas covered, with get your address and contact the proper fire station."

"Don't panic when you call the fire department nor call the telephone operator. Just dial your fire department number that should be always listed near your phone or any of the two listed phones for Township fire stations and the answering service will do the rest."

IN ADDITION, Van Buren is acquiring the old Sumpter Elementary School on Sumpter Road which will have to be replaced in the near future. It is not comparable to present school facilities of Van Buren, Wetherell reported.

"This actually is not a serious problem from the standpoint of operation or millage. If some of the millage goes for Sumpter take-over it will be very small as to be hardly noticeable," Wetherell said.

Developer of the proposed apartment complex is Frank Volk, Sr., land developer and architect. He reported to the Township Board that he is ready to begin the first phase of the $35 to $40 million complex this spring, but this was before the referendum petition circulation.

Mrs. Payne reported late Tuesday that majority of the signatures have been checked and are in order. The task is expected to be completed in a few more days.

A referendum vote on the rezoning would require 15 percent of the Township's registered voters or from 600 to 650 names, it was said.

The referendum election date will be set by the Township Board as soon as all the signatures have been checked. A tentative time for the election is set for the latter part of May, Mrs. Payne reported.

PROGRAM DESCRIBED

Medical Test, Innoculations Are Now Available at Clinic

by Mrs. Crystal Harris

SUMPTER -- The services of medical examinations and inoculations are now available to the children between infancy and the age of nineteen years in the areas of Sumpter, Van Buren, Huron, and Romulus Townships.

Those services are being rendered through the Wayne County Health Department as part of the services of the PRESCAD Project.

The Clinic hours are 1 to 4 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of each week. Services for Monday and Wednesday are for the PRESCAD Pediatric Clinic and Tuesday is the Family Planning Clinic.

Appointments are made through your local township hall with appointments also being placed by calling the Wayne County Health Department, 721-0200, Ext. 6821 Monday thru Friday from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The location of the Clinic is in the building of the Sumpter Progressive Civic League, 24101 Sumpter Road. Due to a problem of proper phone installation, no phone is available yet at that address.

AS PART of the program of the PRESCAD Project, the Civic League will be scheduling Work Shops and Information Meetings in order to help enlighten our community of the services available.

Although the medical services are available only to the children, it is evident that their life evolves around their home environment. With this thought in mind "Enrichment Discussions" and activities will be planned to help the adults provide a more healthy home environment for their children.

In a recent conversation with Dr. Paul Babas, Director of Dental Health with the Wayne County Health Department, it was learned that funds have recently been made available for additional Florida treatments. This program will work through the schools and will service children in the kindergarten and grades second, fifth, and eighth.

The area of Belleville and Sumpter will be serviced during the months of March and April. For those families already registered with PRESCAD, the child need only bring their card at the time of the appointment.

Plans are now under way to have a dental chair installed to provide dental care to children to the age of nine years. This is to be completed in the immediate future.

Dr. George Pickett, M.D., Acting Deputy Director of Wayne County Health Department, has expressed a desire to have the building used every day and evening if possible to help the residents of this area become better informed of the services of PRESCAD.

At a recent "Community Information Meeting" hosted by the Sumpter Progressive Civic League, Inc. and moderated by Tommie Dance, president, members of the staff of Project PRESCAD were present and explained the program.

Those present were Dr. Dale C. Barrett, M.D., Executive Director Project PRESCAD; Dr. Broadus N. Butler, Director of Human Relations; Dr. Jerome Rochon, Clinical Dental Consultant; Mrs. Merritt, Dental Hygienist; William Womack, Community Relations Co-Ordinator; Mrs. Shirley R. Pyke, Community Health Educator; Dr. George Pickett, M.D., Acting Deputy Director Wayne County Health Department; Miss Cathy McCarthy, Director Nurses of PRESCAD Clinics; Miss Jessie Pergrin, Supervisor Nurses Wayne County Health Department; Sam Stock, Environmental Health Engineer.

THE MEETING was well attended by the public. Some of the people present from the community were Harold Connon, district director of O.E.O.; Mrs. Gladys Byars, Sumpter O.E.O.; Rev. C. Dickens, Belleville Ministers Council; Rev. Clarence Davis, Mt. Harmon Baptist Church; Mrs. Tomlinson, Sumpter School Consultant; Philip Hopkins, Sumpter School Board; Henry Majors, Sumpter Township Trustee.

A recording of the discussions of that meeting was made and printed copies are available to organized groups for their review and information by contacting Mrs. Crystal Harris, 24954 Martinsville road, Belleville, phone 461-2712.

The Civic League Center is open every Tuesday evening from 6 to 11 p.m. to help the teenagers of our area to help improve their social health habits and knowledge.

During that time any residents of the Sumpter, Van Buren, Huron, or Romulus area are urged to drop by to learn of the PRESCAD Project and exchange ideas to help utilize to the fullest extent the services available.

Sumpter's Take-over Discussed

BELLEVILLE -- School officials and administrators from four school districts involved in the split-up of the impoverished Sumpter School District were summoned to Lansing recently for discussions on various phases of Sumpter's school system's reorganization.

The meeting was called by Roger Boline, director of school management services division of the Michigan Board of Education.

The split-up of the Sumpter School District becomes effective June 7. Lincoln Consolidated School District, Airport Community School District, Huron Township School District and Van Buren Public Schools are the four adjacent school systems that are involved in the Sumpter reorganization.

At the Lansing meeting last Friday, officials discussed proposed boundary lines, Sumpter's present school property, its City Postpones

Rezone Hearing

BELLEVILLE -- A hearing scheduled on the rezoning of two lots in Map Area 28-a from R-M and R-2 to a R-M (all multiple family residential) set for March 4 has been postponed by City Council until March 18. The land parcels are located on Columbia between Five Points and the Belleville High School. R-2 classification is one family residential.

present teacher staff and division of its school bus and equipment.

Representing Van Buren was Robert Gray, elementary school supervisor; Robert A. Hay, school board secretary; John MacDonald, school board attorney; and Harold O. Wetherell, school superintendent.

The boundary lines as set up in the reorganization program recently approved by the State Board of Education was agreed upon but detailed maps showing where these boundaries are and where Sumpter's school properties lie are to be prepared and made available in two weeks.

When this is accomplished, school officials will be able to account for the number of students to be transferred and the number of registered voters eligible to vote in the take-over school districts.

As to any indebtedness on the present fleet of 12 school buses, the State Board of Education is to recommend to the Michigan Legislature that funds be allocated to pay off the debts that may exist on the bus fleet, it was reported by Wetherell.

Responsibility for outstanding school bonds in the Sumpter Township lies with residents.

Huron Valley Conservation Group Reports on Meeting

BELLEVILLE -- The Huron Valley Conservation Association was represented at the State Water Resources Commission hearing on Feb. 21 at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Ann Arbor, by Wendell K. Howell, Association's president; and Noble Hamrick, treasurer.

The hearing was held to enable interested parties to comment on the proposed uses of the Huron River watershed.

It appears that unless area residents write the Water Resources Commission in opposition, the waters of the Huron River below Ford Dam will be designated for Anadromous fish species, Ford Lake has been recommended for Intolerant Fish, warm water species (bass, pike, panfish). There is also question of whether Belleville Lake will be designated as water-suitable for total body contact (swimming, water skiing, skin diving).

Information relative to water quality standards, copies of proposed uses, and a record of the hearing on Feb. 21 may be obtained from the Michigan Water Resources Commission, 200 Mill St., Lansing.

Comments relative to suggested water uses of the Huron River and impoundments must be forwarded to the Commission within 30 days (by March 21).

The officers of the Huron Valley Conservation Association are preparing a statement on proposed uses to be presented for membership ratification at their March 11 meeting. This will be an open meeting, Howell announced.

Belleville City Office Holders Seek Re-election

BELLEVILLE -- Mayor Royce E. Smith and members of the present City Council along with Mrs. Cora E. Bradshaw are seeking re-election in Belleville's General Election scheduled for April 1.

The two-year terms of Mayor Smith, Mrs. Bradshaw and city councilmen are expiring this year.

All have taken out nominating petitions for the non-partisan election. William Stambaugh, 169 North Edgemont, constable, also seeks re-election. He was unopposed in the April 1966 election.

Douglas Cullin, of 123 Columbia street, local manager of the State Farm Insurance Company has taken out a nominating petition, and has indicated that he intends to run for office.

The posts of mayor, four councilmen, treasurer and constable and Justice of the Peace are to be filled in this year's election.

PRESENT HOLDERS besides Mayor Smith, Mrs. Bradshaw and Stambaugh, are Councilmen Donald Walters, Ellis A. Amerman, Nelson J. Boone, Kenneth Palmer.

The Justice of the Peace post has been vacant since the death of Fordyce W. Riggs, last October. Police cases involving Belleville police were handled by nearby Justices of the Peace.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions is 12 Noon, March 9, Irwin W. Stech, city clerk, said. Petitions must have at least 20, but not more than 40, signatures of qualified and registered voters residing in the city to be accepted for filing.

Your Income Tax

(Editor's Note: Several millions of Michigan taxpayers will file their annual Federal income tax returns April. Because of the technical complexities of our self-assessment tax system, The Enterprise-Roman will publish a series of articles prepared by Internal Revenue Service to assist taxpayers. The fifth of the series appears below.)

WHAT IS TAXABLE INCOME

All amounts paid to you as compensation for personal services must be included in your gross income. Therefore, you must report wages, salaries, commissions, tips and other fees received.

Sometimes payment is made in the form of goods or services provided, rather than in the form of money. In such cases, the fair market value of such goods and services must be shown as income on your income tax return.

The value of meals and lodgings you might receive are not income if furnished on the employer's premises, for his convenience.

AN INDIVIDUAL who receives wages or salary from an employer must have a form W-2 attached to the return. An individual who has more than one employer may have more than $290.40 of Social Security Tax withheld from his pay. If so, the excess is considered as additional income Tax withheld. The 1967 form 1040 includes a special line for this excess FICA credit.

The instruction books prepared by the Internal Revenue Service gives the average taxpayer the necessary help to properly prepare his Income Tax return. You are urged to first read the instructions, then start preparing your return.

STANDARD DEDUCTION VS. ITEMIZING DEDUCTIONS Whether you should claim the standard deduction, or itemize your deductions is something each taxpayer has to decide for himself.

If a taxpayer is a homeowner paying interest and taxes, if he made unusually large contributions, paid large medical expenses, or had a theft or other casualty loss, his tax will ordinarily be less if he itemizes deductions.

However, if the total of his deductions is less than either the 10% standard or the minimum standard deduction, it will probably be better to take the standard deduction.

WHERE MARRIED persons file separate returns both husband and wife must either itemize deductions or claim the same type standard deduction. A husband cannot itemize while his wife takes the standard deduction. The appropriate tax table, shown in the instructions, is used to determine the tax on incomes under $5,000 when either the 10% or minimum standard deduction is claimed.

See your form 1040 instruction booklet for more information on this subject.

If you still have a question, Internal Revenue Document No. 5107 will furnish more detailed information. It may be obtained by dropping a postcard to District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

I happen to remember,
From the bottom of my heart
Our most courageous leader
Who studied to be very smart.

I picture him in my mind,
As a wonder of a man
Until a person named John Wilkes Booth
Ended his whole life span.

Every word that Lincoln said
Was worth a fifteen dollar bill,
Yes, Lincoln was an honest man
Every promise he would fulfill.

Lincoln was a master
At telling funny stories
He even put mad and angry people
In their cheerful glories.

Suppose you overpaid him
A penny or two
He'd run around the corner
And come chasing after you.

His heart was as soft as cotton
Or melted butter, they say
He'd say hello to everyone
Almost every day.

You have just learned about
One of America's greatest men
Whose very promising life
Came to a sudden end.

The Public Letter Box

TO THE EDITOR:

As a member of the tax paying society, I would like to speak in favor of the forthcoming school millage election.

Of all the taxes I pay each year the one that I least resent paying is my school tax. It is the one tax that gives direct benefits with very little loss in collection and administrative fees. It benefits the children of our community in preparing them for their adult lives.

The 24.9 mills property tax we shall be paying for the operation of the Van Buren Public Schools is a very small amount of the total cost of educating our children. Last year Van Buren Public Schools spent approximately $624 per child from the general operating fund. I would like for each parent to compare his school tax bill with this figure and then realize what a bargain he is getting.

SOME PEOPLE talk of more state aid and more federal aid, but the higher we go for support, the more the cost to the tax payer per dollar returned. About 97 percent of local taxes collected are returned to local school funds; about 75 percent of state collected funds can be returned to local use; and only about 50 percent of federally collected revenues can filter back for local usage. State and federal aid sound good, but are they?

I have heard very little about getting up in arms and fighting the state legislators' extravagant ways which give very little in the way of personal service to local tax payers.

Nor do I see or hear of many people really getting angry enough to work together to force our federal government officials to conserve tax monies. Certainly, we do hear some local discussion of national affairs, but nothing is really ever accomplished by the discontented ones.

WHEN I look around and see the general apathy concerning state and federal taxes and spending, I wonder why these apathetic people suddenly concern themselves over the comparatively few tax dollars they may save by voting down a ten mill tax levy which will benefit their own children. It simply does not make sense!

VOTE YES ON MARCH 4! A Tax Payer

TO THE EDITOR:

It is gratifying to report that on Oct. 31, National UNICEF Day, over 3.5 million American boys and girls collected more "treats" of pennies, nickels and dimes than ever before on behalf of their less fortunate counterparts, in the world's greatest program by children to help children.

A specific estimate of the grand total remains premature, but all indications point to a substantial increase over the record $2,712,000 raised on Halloween, 1966.

Similar optimism is justified concerning the results of the 1967 UNICEF Greeting Card sales.

On behalf of millions of needy children and mothers in 117 countries who are being assisted by the United Nations Children's Fund, the U.S. Committee for UNICEF expresses heartfelt thanks to you, to your staff and to your readers for the part taken in these vital, life-saving campaigns.

Victor de Keyserling
Director of Information Services

TO THE EDITOR:

As a very proud Mobile Home owner I have a few things to say on the forthcoming school millage vote.

First of all I can walk down the street in this or any community with my head held high as I have done research on just how much tax money comes out of Mobile Home Parks for schools.

It is quite an awakening to find out how much the Park owner pays ADDED to what the Mobile Home owner pays directly. Therefore I feel free to express an opinion.

We all know teachers want more money and will strike to get it. Teachers are human and wish to earn enough to keep a family and home. Since teachers want as much as those in industry, why not adopt industries patterns in the schools? An eight hour day, twelve months a year with vacations on the basis of years worked?

ALSO THE standards for teachers should be raised to coincide with salaries. I know some of the teachers leave a lot to be desired as far as the welfare of the student is concerned.

The counseling program should be up-graded as I don't feel the students are getting enough information on job opportunities upon graduation.

There are many skills needed in this country which require additional schooling, whether it be at a college or on an apprenticeship program. I would like to see the seniors given professional aptitude tests to give them a guideline as to many don't know which direction to follow after graduation.

I KNOW my rent will be raised if the millage passes but I don't mind if there were a definite program of action published before a millage vote. Such as a definite program of economy and teacher standards. I don't see the wisdom in a new Junior High when our high school is already splitting at the seams. Where are all these students from two Junior Highs going to high school?

Instead of finding fault with some other poor taxpayer let us demand more efficient economy—more efficient teaching and more public knowledge about our schools.

When I am assured of some answers I will vote yes but until then a no vote for me.

Very Interested

TO THE EDITOR:

During the past few weeks we have noticed a flurry of articles and letters attempting to bribe, threaten or cajole us out of additional money by increasing taxes. It seems we're being besieged on all sides, federal, state, local and school. It's the latter that I'm especially interested and concerned about because schools, being the birthplace of education set the foundation for the others.

At present we have the school board telling us they need more money, but, no where do they tell us how they are presently cutting corners to save our funds.

Granted we do need buildings, modest ones, we do need an auditorium and perhaps, although I'm not certain, an administration building. But, with all the available brain-power why is it that no one has come up with the idea to combine the two under one roof?

Isn't likely that both would ever be in use at the same time and the savings in construction costs alone would be astounding, not to mention the savings in maintenance and perhaps insurance. Why does our superintendent and board need a private building?

I HAVE some other questions to ask too? How many conventions, "educational" gatherings, etc., do our board members attend at the tax payers'

EVENT IS DESCRIBED

El Salvador 4-C Club Members Hold Annual Achievement Days

(Editor's Note: This is another interesting article by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Mabery (Mrs. Mabery is the former Hazel McCullag of New Boston) Peace Corps Volunteers now supplementing Peace Corps work with the El Salvador Agriculture Extension Service, El Salvador, Central America.)

The annual 4-C Club Achievement Days are days of pride for hundreds of young boys and girls throughout El Salvador. These days take place locally during the months of October, November, and December as the year comes to a temporary end.

The anxiety of the coming Achievement Day begins as each member sees and feels himself own individual project.

This project may be the construction of a simple apron, a bouquet of paper flowers, a little garden of radishes and green peppers, a field of rice or even the raising of a dozen chickens.

It is through these projects that the youth learn the importance of cooperation, individual thinking, and helping oneself to succeed.

THEN ABOUT two months before the set date of the Achievement Day, the 4-C members, along with their leaders, parents, and extension agents, begin planning the program of the day.

The 4-C clubs of Tecoloca began the day with a parade formed by the 4-C clubs, each with its own flag and "typical" homemade float ("typical" means a wooden cart decorated according to a chosen theme and pulled by a team of oxen). Also the office of agriculture extension sponsored a float which carried the five 4-C queen candidates which had been chosen previously by the 4-C members.

The parade ended in front of the junior high school where the inauguration of the day soon took place.

The mayor of the town, national supervisors of agriculture extension, 4-C members, 4-C leaders, parents, and an over-flow of attendance of friends all took part.

THE PROGRAM was highlighted by the happy and proud faces of the 4-C members as they were presented ribbons and prizes for their best work completed.

Then the exhibition of projects was opened to the public. It was something that the average person of Tecoloca had never seen before: well constructed skirts and blouses, tablecloths, place mats, and pillowcases with hand embroidery, decorated room dividers made from burlap bags, flowers made of paper and corn husks, string and plastic purses, crop examples of corn, rice, and sorghum, vegetable garden display with photos of progress, and a rooster and pullet from each of chicken projects.

The day came to a climatic end with a dance for all and a crowning of the 4-C club queen of Tecoloca.

Yes, it was a proud day for all.

We hope the enthusiasm and individual development of the young boys and girls of Tecoloca and all of El Salvador continues this year as it did in the last.

The actual float is on a wooden cart with the theme and example of "Nuestros Productos" our 4-C projects. The 4-C member's name is Juan Dorio.

Area Holstein Credited With Record

BELLEVILLE -- Holstein-Friesian Association of America has reported a production milestone for a Registered Holstein cow from this area.

The career producer has been credited with more than 100,000 lbs. of milk output under official testing supervision. The owner, Jack R. Budd, of 42510 Expressway, has been notified that Budd Farm Miss Segis 4615875 (VG) has produced 101,242 lbs. of milk and 3,621 lbs. of butterfat in 2,747 days since becoming two years of age.

Because of current replacement heifer rearing and purchase costs, cows that stay in the herd longer and achieve high lifetime production levels have proven to be more profitable. The Holstein Association has more than 26,800 cows on file that have attained the 50-ton production milestone.

If the thought of buying a new furnace bothers you, read this new Three-Step Protection Plan.

First, call Edison. We'll give you the names of electric heat contractors near you. Each has been Edison-approved as capable and reliable.

Next, the contractor will check your home, review your needs, and recommend the type of heat best for you. He will estimate both installation and operating cost and give them to you in writing. All without obligation. We'll check the quotes if you like.

Then, after your new electric heat system is installed, Edison and your contractor will make any adjustments necessary to the system if operating cost exceeds the original estimate during the first three years of use. At the end of this time, if operating cost still exceeds the estimate, and you aren't satisfied, Edison will remove the system and refund your original price.

That's our new Three-Step Protection Plan. Remember the first step. Call Edison.

Enroute home they were overnight guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Bowick and family at Easley, S. C. (the latter being the former Marjorie Gault). They toured the Biltmore Mansion at Asheville, N.C., visited Renfro Valley, at Mt. Week-end guests at the High street home of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Tator were friends from Kalamazoo, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Whitman.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Sager returned home Thursday evening from Cincinnati, Ohio, where they had spent two weeks caring for their three grandsons while their daughter, Mrs. James Jacobs, was in the hospital for major surgery.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Darryl H. Raymond, Sr., drove to Bellevue and spent the day with their sister-in-law, Mrs. Harley Raymond.

Saturday evening guests of the Clayton Saunders', of Liberty street, were friends from River Rouge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Klais and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Maynard.

Moore remained to spend some time with the latter couple.

Y., spent from Thursday through Sunday with her parents, the Fred Lundes, of Liberty street, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, of Ypsilanti. Belleville's Newest Club
They're The 'B. Squares'

People are forever asking, "Well, what's new in Belleville?" And if you were to inquire about week-end activities we could fill you in on a fairly new group which labels itself, "The B. Squares."

Having budded from an annual square dance sponsored by a Methodist Sunday School class, the group was organized last October and is now comprised of some 20 persons whose interest and enthusiasm resulted in the formation of the club.

All Around The Town...

WITH LEE

SUZY'S FIVE NOW

THAT CUTE little Suzy Norman was a pretty important person around her house on Saturday, the 17th. Being it was her fifth birthday, she was treated with a bit more attention and even had a party to celebrate the important event.

Her mother, Mary Norman, had several little friends in for an afternoon gala at their home on Angola street. A Mickey Mouse theme was used for the table decorations and little plastic Walt Disney characters were given out for prizes. Following a variety of games, the party-hatted group sat down to a Teddy Bear cake and ice cream.

Answering invitations to Suzy's party were Carol and Randy Thorne, Jennifer Touse, Kimberley Jahner, Holly Fitch, Linda Amerman, Tina and Janice Norman, from Romulus, and of course, her sister, Cindy Norman.

OFF TO THE MUSEUM

THE THIRD graders of Haggerty School enjoyed a special outing last Thursday -- their destination being Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn. Traveling via bus, the group was accompanied by Mrs. Mary Ann Stone, Mrs. Frances Stapleton, and Mrs. Judy Berlin, their teachers, and mothers who assisted on the trip -- Mrs. Madelyn Muse, Mrs. Agnes Cook, Mrs. Vivian Koss, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Dorothy Jones, and another Mrs. Cook (whose first name we couldn't track down).

Of special interest to the students was the section on clothing, spinning wheels, etc., which fit right in with their current studies on the making of cloth and clothing. Mid-way in the tour the youngsters enjoyed a sack lunch and cold drinks in the Museum cafeteria.

AWAY FOR THE WEEK-END

GETTING AWAY from 'Michigan in February' -- even for a week-end -- would be quite a treat. Such was the case last Friday as Chet and Mary Kossin and their son, Mark, jetted their way to Florida. Arriving at Jacksonville, they then motored to Daytona Beach where their plans called for watching the two big races -- the Permatex 300 and the Daytona 500.

They arrived back at their Elwell road home Monday afternoon and relieved Grandma Kossin (the senior Mrs. Chester Kossin) from her babysitting duties with the remaining Kossin children.

CAN YOU HELP?

The reunion, by the way, is being planned for June 8, at Rogalle's banquet room.

Both the senior Burkes, members of Trinity Episcopal Church, are enjoying good health. Mr. Burke celebrated his 90th birthday last December.

Congratulations!

Easter Seal Campaign Will Open on March 1

INKSTER--The 1968 Easter Seal Campaign will begin

March 1 and continue until April 14, Easter Sunday, Dan Mercure, General Chairman for Western Wayne County, announced.

During those weeks, a wide-spread appeal for funds will be made by the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County to finance treatment and rehabilitation for crippled children and adults in this area.

Last year, more than 500 handicapped persons received help from the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County explained Mercure. But needs of the handicapped and costs of providing expert professional care are rising, and more money than ever before will be needed to serve the handicapped during 1968.

THE CAMPAIGN will include the traditional Easter Seal mail appeal to former contributors and in several areas, the street sale of paper lilies made by home-bound handicapped men and women. Anyone not receiving Easter Seals may secure them from the Easter Seal Center by calling PA 2-3055 or addressing P.O. Box # 101, Inkster, 48141.

Reports Gas Use Up

The gas industry now supplies fuel to more than 39.7 million customers, an increase of 800,000 new customers last year.

Ralph T. McElvenny, a director of the American Gas Association, and president of American Natural Gas Company and its subsidiary, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, said national sales of gas showed a 4.5 percent increase during 1967 to reach a new high of 135 billion therms of gas (one therm is equal to 100,000 British Thermal Units or roughly equivalent to 100 cubic feet of natural gas).

McElvenny pointed out that, while this record showed excellent growth for the industry, the American Natural Gas system doubled that growth figure with a nine percent increase in sales over the previous year. The American Natural Gas system, besides Michigan Consolidated, includes two other distributing companies, Wisconsin Gas Company and Central Indiana Gas Company, and an interstate gas transmission company, Michigan Wisconsin Pipe Line Company.

System distribution companies supply gas to some 1,360,000 customers in 1,000 communities in Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana.

Michigan ranks third of the 50 states in the production of grapes.

Supervisors Give Official Status To Committee on Crime Control

The Coordinating Committee on Crime Control has been given official status by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, after functioning on an informal basis since last June 15.

Fifteen public agencies involves in crime prevention and law enforcement are represented on the committee.

The committee was established at the suggestion of Mel Ravitz, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, "to coordinate the plans, proposals, fund raising endeavors and legislative thrusts of many of the interrelated crime control agencies."

A RESOLUTION adopted by the Board of Supervisors, (Feb. 20) gives the coordinating committee permanent status as a body under the direction of the chairman of the county board.

The committee is engaged in three major projects:

- A task force is developing a plan for coordinated attack on juvenile delinquency.
- Plans are being developed for a detoxification center or centers in Wayne County to combat the problem of alcoholism.
- A comprehensive plan is being developed under the County Planning Commission to better coordinate social services with other aspects of crime control.

Agencies represented on the coordinating committee are the: Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney, Detroit Police Department, Wayne County Sheriff's Office, Juvenile Division - Probate Court, Recorder's Court, Mayor's Committee for Human Resources Development, Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity, Wayne County Suburban Legal Services, Inc., Detroit Neighborhood Legal Services Centers, Detroit Board of Education, Wayne County Intermediate School District, Detroit-Wayne County Mental Health Services Board, Wayne County Board of Supervisors, Wayne County Board of Auditors, and Wayne County Planning Commission.

Port rules aimed at barring criminal elements from the waterfront in Wayne County become effective last June 9. But implementation has been stalled pending adoption of the license fees.

The board also approved a plan to pay the county's $12-million debt to the City of Detroit. The debt represents charges for care of county patients in city hospitals.

The plan calls for issuance of tax anticipation notes later this year, and in subsequent years, if necessary, if the county runs short of operating funds as a result of proceeding under the plan.

Citizens Group Favors Home Rule for County

DETROIT -- A citizens committee, completing a year-long study, this week described Wayne County's governmental structure as "unrepresentative and unwieldy," and recommended that it be "modernized through adoption of county home rule."

The 99-member citizens group, called the "Committee of 99," was appointed by Mel Ravitz, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, to study county government and recommend whether or not the county should move to implement the Michigan County Home Rule Act of 1966.

The committee report was presented to Ravitz and the Board of Supervisors by Averil Cohn, a Detroit attorney and co-chairman of the Committee of 99.

The committee reported that the structure of county government has changed little since the mid-19th Century and is outmoded and inadequate to cope with the present-day needs of Wayne County's 2,700,000 citizens.

"Under the circumstances, it is amazing that county officials are able to perform as well as they do," the report stated.

The Home Rule Act offers an opportunity for "significant improvement" of county government, the committee concluded. It recommended that the Board of Supervisors submit the home rule question to the voters "as soon as practicable."

The voters would decide whether to elect a charter commission which would have six months to write a county charter. The charter would set forth the structure, powers and functions of county government within the limits of the Home Rule Act, Public Act 293. The charter would then be submitted to the voters for approval.

The Committee of 99 also recommended that the Board of Supervisors ask the State Legislature to amend specific sections of Act 293 in order that "the charter commission and the voters of Wayne County will have broader discretion in choosing the form of government which will best meet the needs of the county."

The report states that in recent years, "counties have been performing an increasing amount and variety of important services at the local level."

Major features of county home rule government would be election or appointment of a county executive -- an office that does not exist now -- partisan election of a county commission (legislative body) from single-member districts, and a revamping of the structure of county agencies.

"I expect that within the next 90 days an appropriate decision will be made, based upon the best thinking of the Board of Supervisors and the county officials," Ravitz said.

The Citizens Research Council of Michigan and the Metropolitan Fund, Inc. assisted in the study.

Fluoride Scheduled In Romulus

ROMULUS -- Wayne County Department of Health topical fluoride program will start in the Romulus School District the latter part of March, it was announced this week by Lucille Combs, registered nurse.

At the time appointed, envelopes will be distributed to all eligible children in kindergarten, second, fifth and eighth grades, she said. Four appointments are necessary and total cost for each child is $4.

Because the program is self-supporting and to meet expenses, there must be at least 75 children participating in each school. This year, any eligible children registered with or eligible for PRESCAD will receive the treatments free of charge.

Since there is no fluoride in the Romulus area water, Wayne County Department of Health has recommended that the designated children -- most importantly the 8th graders -- receive the treatments to help reduce tooth decay.

Nurse Combs may be called at 722-4055 for further information.

Cohn's co-chairman, Hilary Whittaker, of Grosse Pointe, resigned before the study was completed to take an overseas post with the Federal government.

The committee issued a five-point summary of findings on present county government:

1. The county legislative body, the Board of Supervisors, is unrepresentative, malapportioned and unwieldy. (The Board of Supervisors has 130 members; all but one serve because they are either municipal or township office holders or are appointed by municipal officerholders.)

2. Centralized executive authority and responsibility are lacking in county government.

3. County government lacks the capacity to reorganize its own structure. (This, the report stated, is due to the fact that the present structure and functions of nearly all offices, boards and commissions "are frozen into the State Constitution and various legislative acts.")

4. County government lacks the legal authority to provide services needed by the people.

5. County government finds it increasingly difficult to maintain established services with present sources of revenue.

The committee reported that the following improvements are possible under county home rule:

1. Act 293 would provide a smaller (5 to 35 members), fairly apportioned legislative body, with members elected by the people.

2. Under Act 293, the county would have centralized executive leadership, responsible and accountable to the voters.

3. County home rule would enable Wayne County to make significant improvements in the maze of semi-autonomous agencies, offices, boards and commissions which make up its present administrative structure.

4. Act 293 gives the people of the county and their directly-elected legislative body broadened powers to determine the types and levels of services that will be provided in the county.

5. Act 293 provides opportunities for increased county revenue to finance more adequately county services.

Keith Shelly, Formerly Of Uhts, Leaving Area

WAYNE -- Keith H. Shelly, a Western Wayne area mortician and civic leader for most of the past 20 years, is moving to Eaton Rapids where he has purchased a funeral home, it was announced this week.

Shelly, 50, was a funeral director at Uht Memorial Home from 1944 until 1948 and again from 1961 to last summer. In the interim, he was in insurance sales with New York Life, Detroit. Shelly left the Uht firm last July to become self-employed, performing service embalming.

A 1941 graduate of Wayne State University, Shelly and his wife Doris have three children -- Robert 25, Phillip 24, both married, and Linda 13. They reside at 34641 Elm street, Wayne.

Shelly has been a resident of Western Wayne for 24 years. In addition to considerable PTA and Boy Scout work, he is a former Jaycee and has been a member of Kiwanis for 15 years. He is currently vice president of Michigan Funeral Directors, District 13.

Shelly's business acquisition in Eaton Rapids is the Pettit Funeral Home. He expects to assume ownership this Friday, March 1.

Two Cited for Work in Solving Fire Bombing

ROMULUS -- Two area investigators with the Special Investigation Bureau of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department recently received special citations from Sheriff Peter L. Buback for solving the September 9 fire bombing of a steel truck on I-94 in Romulus Township.

Investigation by Robert W. Gordon, Dearborn Heights, and Emory Meier, Garden City, led to the apprehension of three juveniles and three adults for the bombing which put Calvin Dixon, Bronson, Mich., the driver and owner of the truck, on the critical list at University of Ann Arbor Hospital for three weeks. Bronson presently is recovering.

Arrested by Gordon and Meier on October 12 were the three juveniles who pled guilty in Juvenile Court on November 9, and committed to Boys Training School until their 19th birthday. Two of the boys are 15, the third is 16.

Scheduled to appear in circuit court on March 11 before Judge Edward S. Piggins are Leon Mullens, 45, of 10370 Mariam, DeWayne Barnett, 18, of 10301 Mariam, and Wayne Harfey, 17, of 10134 Mariam, all Romulus Township.

They are, at this time, charged with placing explosives with intent to destroy or cause injury to persons. Sentence on this charge carries a mandatory life penalty with no chance of parole.

Mullens, who detectives say plotted the bombing, was one of the wildcat strikers who this summer struck trucking companies and hauled for Detroit steel firms.

He was arrested by Ecorse police following a fight at Great Lakes Steel against a truck driver who refused to strike. Investigators Gordon and Meier, noting that Mullens lived in the area of the fire bombing, questioned everybody acquainted with Mullens, according to the investigators.

The four youngest members of the ring, after questioning, volunteered statements, the investigators said. According to the statements, Mullens had offered them beer to take part in the bombing.

GM's Science Show Presented At 2 Junior High Schools Here

BELLEVILLE -- "We have engineered in the United States the most progressive land on the face of the earth, but many challenging questions remain to be answered by the scientists and engineers of the future."

That message of opportunity was presented to local students when General Motors research-in-action stage show, "Previews of Progress," appeared at Belleville Junior High School and Bessie Hoffman Junior High School, Sumpter, on Thursday, February 22nd at 10:00 a.m. and Friday, February 23rd, 1968 at 10:00 a.m. respectively.

The non-commercial show seeks to encourage more student interest in science and engineering careers. It was presented in non-technical language by Previews lecturer, Stephen B. Gain.

A highlight of the 40-minute program was the Sunmobile, a 15-inch model car that runs on sunlight. Eight button-like solar cells on the car's hood convert energy in sunlight into electricity. A 300-watt lamp, simulating the sun's rays, powered the car across a table top during the show.

The GM representatives emphasized that the Sunmobile was not designed to prove the feasibility of running automobiles on sunlight or to forecast it. It demonstrates, they said, the potential of the continuing search for new ways to harness for more efficient use the tremendous energy of the sun.

STUDENTS ALSO saw three fuel cells convert chemical energy into electricity. The small fuel cells, made with chemicals during the show in containers the size of paper cups, provided enough power to operate a portable radio.

The fuel cell -- a highly efficient energy conversion device -- is a subject of continuing intensive research, the Previews lecturers said. They told students that GM has developed a full-size experimental vehicle that demonstrates that electric propulsion by fuel cells is technically feasible.

One way to move heavy loads with little physical effort was illustrated by an "air bearing" platform. A small vacuum-cleaner type motor provided a thin film of air under three large circular pads supporting the platform. This air-cushion reduced friction between the floor and the pads enabling finger-tip movement of the platform carrying about 200-pounds.

TWO NOVEL experiments involving "man-made" molecules indicated modern chemistry's contributions to progress. Synthetic rubber was manufactured in a bottle in just one-minute and a foam plastic cake "baked" itself in only two-minutes.

The importance of seat belt protection for vehicle occupants was dramatized by a model impact sled, a device automotive safety engineers have been using to test the structural integrity of car bodies and components.

Since 1962, a full-size impact sled has been used in vehicle safety and occupant protection tests at the GM Proving Ground at Milford, Michigan. It enables GM engineers to "fire" payloads up to 5,000 pounds along a pair of 100-foot rails on a sled-like structure. These tests can be repeated as often as necessary under carefully-controlled conditions to provide factual data.

A STUDY by a University of Michigan medical team, indicates that the use of seat belts could reduce the number of traffic fatalities by as much as 40 per cent.

Other demonstrations in the Previews show covered the use of gyroscopes in modern navigation systems for space vehicles, aircraft and submarines and an explanation of how a gas turbine engine operates.

The Previews team that appeared here is one of seven two-man units now touring the country. About 1,500,000 students and adults will see Previews this year.

TURBINE POWER: Belleville Junior High School students Jeff Smith and Randy Barker are examining the model turbine engine used in General Motors' "Previews of Progress" science show which was presented to Belleville Junior High students and faculty last Thursday afternoon, Feb. 22.

SEAT BELTS SAVE LIVES: Bessie Hoffman Junior High School students Leonard Piwinski (center) and Richard Duckins look on as fellow student Larry Hunter points out the benefits of using seat belts. The safety value of seat belts was demonstrated by General Motors Representative Stephen Gain using miniature impact sled was one of nine science in action demonstrations seen by Hoffman students as GM's "Previews of Progress" science show was pictured presented Friday morning, Feb. 23.

Plagued and Prodded, Parochials Start Push for Public Aid Funds

By GAIL McKNIGHT

INKSTER - Across the state, thousands of letters have been sent to Lansing urging some form of aid to the state's non-public schools.

Typical of the campaigns across Michigan is the one being run at St. Kevin's Parish, Inkster, under the chairmanship of Daniel Swanko.

Under Swanko and his committee, more than 3,000 letters have been mailed from parishioners to the Governor, leaders of the State House and Senate, and to State Senator William Faust and State Representative Vincent Petitpre. All these letters have been sent within the past two weeks.

He said all the letters basically urged the state officials to become fully aware of the financial condition of the state's non-public schools and to take some steps to assist these schools.

Swanko added that a formal bill would probably be introduced in Lansing this week which would have provisions for some aid for children attending non-public schools.

Swanko said that the bill will allow payments of $50 to parents for each child in non-public elementary school and $100 for each child in non-public high school.

He further explained that payments are made at the rate of $25 per secular subject with a maximum of two for elementary and a maximum of four for high school. Secular subjects include arithmetic, languages, spelling and geography etc.

Payments, according to the proposed bill, would be made directly to the parents, for the specified use of defraying the cost of educating their children at non-public schools.

If and when the bill is introduced, Swanko and his committee would urge the passage of the bill, or one with similar provisions. Most of the coordination for this push on Lansing is coming from the Michigan Association for Non-Public Schools and from the Citizens for Educational Freedom (CEF).

THE PUSH FOR PUBLIC AID--Members of the Education Committee pushing for State Aid to Non-Public schools in St. Kevin's Parish (Inkster-Westland-Garden City) are, seated from left, Mary Farrugia, Dan Swanko and Maryanna Michon. Standing are Paul Tavara and Marietta Odierna. Their group is typical of many now organized.

Swanko pointed out that it was through the Michigan Association that this campaign gained momentum. The Association has brought together the leaders from the church schools (Catholic, Lutheran, Christian Reform and Jewish) in addition to non-secretarian private schools.

With this union of forces, Swanko said those involved have managed to deluge Lansing with more than 57,000 letters in the past ten days.

At St. Kevin's, Swanko said the whole project was organized quite quickly. Team captains were appointed, and the entire parish was canvassed informing residents of the situation and urging them to send letters to Lansing.

All non-public schools are facing financial crisis in their attempts to keep their schools going, he said. At St. Kevin's, the increase in the number of lay teachers, the lowering of class sizes and the increase in costs have put the school in a bind.

Swanko said St. Kevin's, like many other schools, are faced with the possibility of curtailing services unless some form of assistance is devised.

Most non-public schools charge a family $50 a year for school charges. "This does not come anywhere near the total cost for education," he said.

Swanko said that the proponents of this aid to non-public schools believe that this proposal will cost the state much less than it would to absorb these children if these schools were forced to close.

He said the people at St. Kevin's and at the other nonpublic schools believe that their schools are performing a service to the community and to the public school district.

If the public school system had to absorb the 300,000 children in the non-public schools, it would cost approximately $600-700 apiece a year to educate them. It had been estimated that this would run to $200 million in additional operating cost.

Swanko added that would cost the state in the neighborhood of $700 million to add the facilities to house these new students, if the non-public schools closed down.

Swanko said that the Michigan Association of Non-Public Schools and CEF base their campaign on the right of every parent to educate his child in the manner he sees fit. Without some state aid, this freedom is one that cannot be afforded. Swanko said that those involved just request a small portion of their taxes be returned for the education of their children.

As of this writing, the PTA of the state of Michigan is beginning its campaign to oppose state aid to non-public schools. The PTA said that this bill would undermine the entire public school system in the state.

Presently, those favoring aid have a two-week headstart and have their people organized. The PTA will have to hurry to get their members to deluge Lansing with as much mail as the non-public school parents have sent.

On the basis of a special election held Monday in the state's 23rd Senatorial District, the proponents seem to have a slight edge. The victor campaigned on the premise that he would vote for such aid; his defeated opponent said he most definitely would not.

So the people at St. Kevin's and other non-public schools wait; the PTA gets ready for battle. But both groups have to wait for the bill to be introduced in Lansing. Then Round Two will begin.

In a communication read at the Township Board's meeting Feb. 13, Chester Wojcie, of 48442 Hull Road, president of the Little League Association, asked of the Board on whether it would render some financial aid to the league in the purchase of equipment.

Since the Board can't make such contributions it referred the request to the Recreation Commission.

Romulus Upsets Rouge Plan for Unbeaten Year

Eagles Snap Panthers' League Win Streak at 8

TWIN VALLEY
Team	Won	Lost
River Rouge	8	1
Ecorse	7	2
Romulus	5	4
Willow Run	3	6
Hamtramck	2	7
Monroe CC	1	8

If River Rouge cherished any plans of finishing the Twin Valley

ley Basketball Conference, one of the toughest cage leagues in the state, with an undefeated record, those plans went down the drain Friday night as Romulus held on to an exciting 63-61 victory to hand the Panthers their first league setback of the season.

Romulus, which has won six of its last seven starts, put Ecorse back into the title picture - a team whose hopes it partially crushed the previous week.

Rouge must now find a way to get by Ecorse in order to claim all of the conference crown. An Ecorse victory Friday night would cause a two-way tie for first.

The Panthers now have a half of the crown.

Romulus, meanwhile, wraps up the season with Monroe Catholic Central Friday at home. An Eagle victory would entitle it to a third place finish in the Twin Valley.

In one of the most dramatic games of the season, Romulus avenged its earlier loss to the newly crowned champs after a hotly contested contest where neither team was able to give more than a six-point advantage at any time during the match.

Romulus held a one-point, 14-13, first period edge and maintained the lead at halftime 30-27, but Rouge came back in the third period to gain a 46-45 margin to set the stage for a thrilling finale.

In the final quarter, Howard Mayfield sank a pair of free throws to give the Panthers a 48-45 edge, but baskets by Mike Woods, Charles Johncan and Nolan Street erased Romulus' deficit and gave the Eagles a 51-48 control.

Rouge answered with Mayfield sinking a bucket, making it 51-50.

Woods' free throw made it a basket's difference, and Curtis Martin sank a fielder to deadlock the score at 52-all. When Street tossed in two free throws he gave his team the lead again, but it was short-lived as Rouge came back with successive baskets by Martin and a tap-in by center William Kilgore.

Rouge then slumped as Street connected at the foul line and Larry Smith sank his final basket.

Trailing by one point, Street gave the Eagles the lead with a jump shot and Woods added another, and with 1:25 on the clock, Street hit on a pair of free throws to widen the margin, 62-57, the greatest margin either team had.

Kilgore replied with back-to-back baskets to slash the lead to two points, but the Panthers couldn't manage the one which could have sent the game into overtime.

As the buzzer sounded, Nesbitt was fouled and shot those after the crowd left. He missed.

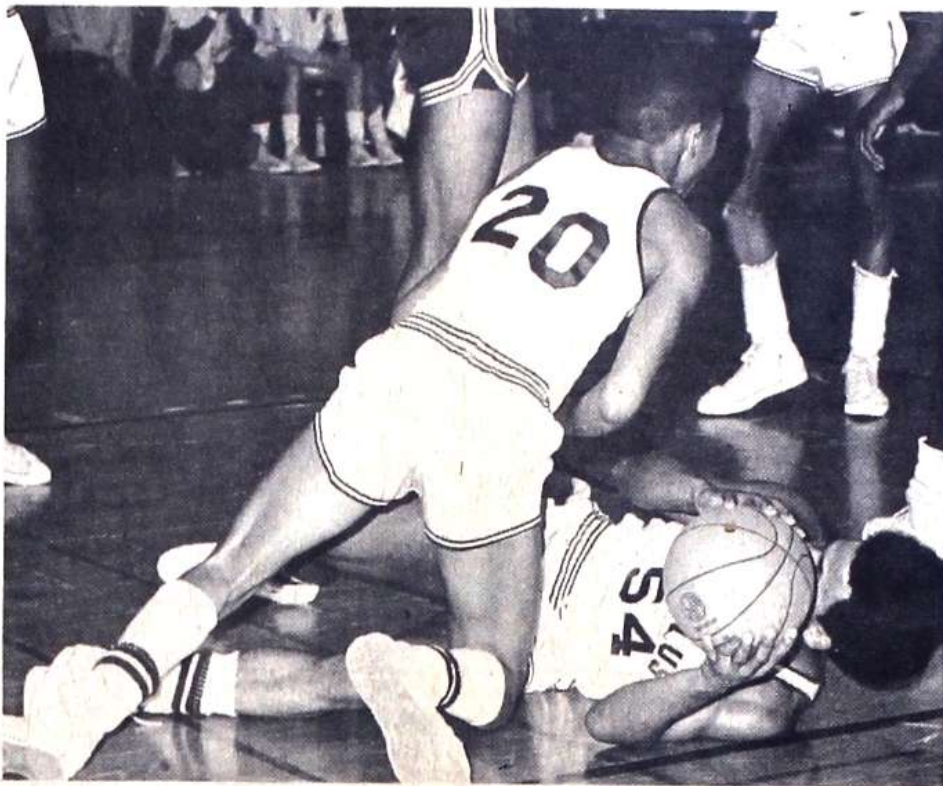

Rouge, which had trouble with the zone, also found the boards dominated by Woods and Smith. Woods hauled in 22 while Smith had 17. Aside from those rebounds, the Romulus speedster sank eight field goals and two free throws for 18 points. Smith had nine points.

The night's high scorer was Street whose timely baskets stunned the Panthers. He hit on nine jump shots and added five more from the foul line for 23 points.

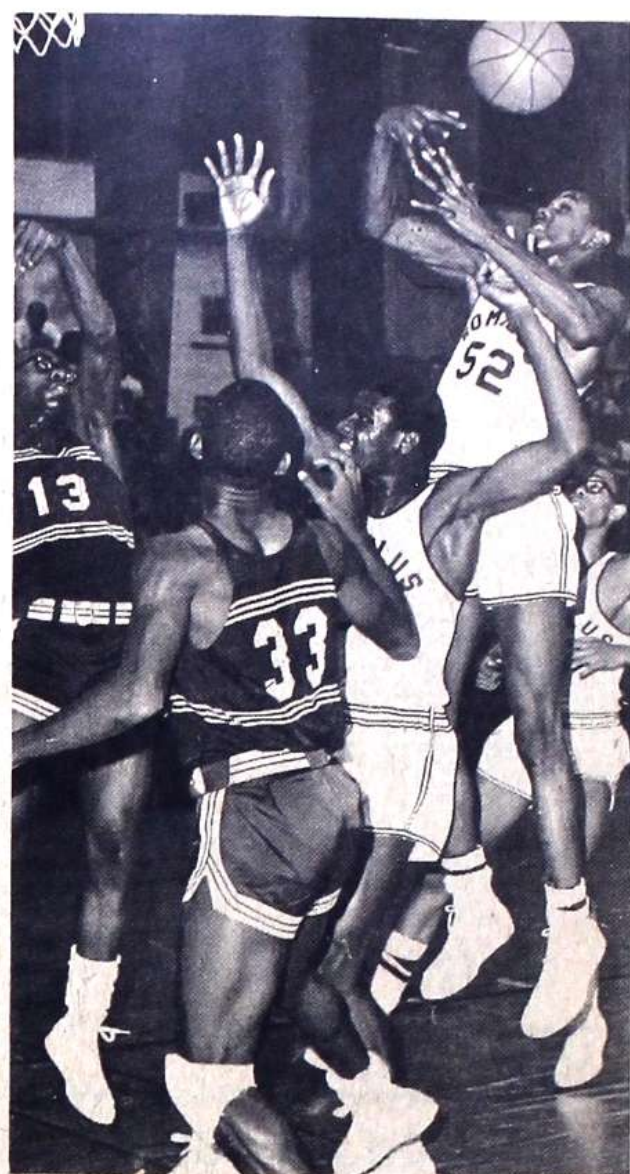

At the foul line, the Eagles realized nine of 21 to Rouge's 11 of 15.

Rouge had four players in double figures with Wharton as the leader with 17. Kilgore

DOWN BUT NOT OUT-Hugging a ball which he grabbed off the boards, Romulus' Mike Woods (54) goes down while teammate Charles Johncan kneels over him. Woods and Johncan got up and played key roles in leading the Eagles to an exciting 63-61 victory over previously undefeated Twin Valley league leader, River Rouge Friday night.

SIMON SAYS-Up with your hands and up they go for Romulus' Frank Nesbitt (52) and Larry Smith (50) who battle Rouge's Victor Wharton (33) and Howard Mayfield (13) for this rebound. Romulus and coach Al Duva posted their third victory in four starts against the Twin Valley Conference champs, 63-61 in a game which neither team was able to gain more than a four point advantage at any time. Romulus helped Ecorse, putting the Raiders back in the title picture. If Ecorse defeats the Panthers Friday night it will share the title with coach Lofton Greene's team.

WARRICK 95-POUND CHAMP

Belleville 3rd in League

Pinning two of his preliminary opponents, Belleville's Brad Warrick reached the finals of the Suburban Six Conference where he out-wrestled Neal

Fuchs, 4-0, to retain his conference title in the 95-pound class.

Warrick, picked "All-Area" last year, pinned Daniel Buckley in the first round and in the semis disposed of Dave Balsom.

Coach Jim Richendollar's Tigers, however, had to be satisfied with a third place conference finish after Ron Held, top-seeded in the 145-pound category, injured himself in the first round.

Trenton, the defending champs, retained its title while Redford Union placed second. Behind Belleville fell Livonia Bentley and Allen Park.

The Tigers had three runners-up at the meet with 103-pound representative, Darwin Loyer, losing in overtime 2-1 to Jim Thomas, Phil Post placing second to Dan Wilson in the 112 to a 6-5 decision.

Belleville's Mark Gielnicki lost the 138-title to John Laginess, 7-3.

The Tigers finished third in the 127-pound class with Doug Eye.

Belleville and Romulus will join a group of 14 other area schools over the weekend at Trenton to compete for regional honors and the right to participate in the State Finals to be held a week from Friday at Jackson Parkside.

Romulus Wraps Up Dual Meet Season

Romulus grapplers wrapped up the dual meet season last week with Garden City East trouncing the Eagles 35-11 for its 11th win in 12 starts while the Eagles have settled for a 6-8 overall record.

In the opening and closing bouts, Romulus collected eight of its 11 points-the other victory was in the 127 pound class where Ralph Logan defeated Tom Fugabon.

East dropped a 5-2 decision in the 95-pound class as Greg Stephens turned back Jim Toor and the Panthers gave up five points to Nate "Moose" Williams who was left standing on the mats without a heavyweight opponents.

Coach John Kulazenska's boys won the remaining nine classes. In the 103, Ted Takestandis disposed of Louis Donald in 1:24 while Jeff Kocis pinned George

Doyle in 1:25 in the 112 and Mike Jose was awarded a five point victory when coach Jim Stallings failed to bring up a

Dennis Fifield's record setting 42 points lifted Redford

Union to a 100-69 victory over Suburban Six Conference rival, Belleville, Friday night.

The 6-5 senior cager strolled off the floor with R.U.'s scoring record as he slipped in 19 fielders and connected for four free throws for almost half of his team's output.

Belleville and coach Larry Hulce will wrap up the league season Friday night as hosts to Bentley, the newly crowned league champs. The Tigers will make their annual trek to Ypsilanti next week to compete in the District playoffs.

Also at Ypsilanti, beside the undefeated host, are teams from Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Cherry Hill and Inkster.

Belleville stayed in the game for most of the first two periods, with captain Wilson Boone's baskets. But shortly after halftime John Yocum, the Tiger center, received his fifth personal foul and left the battle and the boards to Fifield.

Fifield made good use of them.

Redford Union outscored the Tigers 30-16 in the third period for the knock-down punch, after leading 25-16 in the opening period, and 47-33 at halftime. Boone drilled in ten field goals and sank three from the foul lines for 23 points to lead the Tiger scorers while Yocum, who played less than half the game, finished up with 10 points.

R. U. received double figures from three other players, Bill son to score the decisive baskets which gave the Chiefs a 61-59 Lake Shore Conference overtime victory.

Edmonds sank his third basket of the night on the buzzer to deadlock the score at 55-all, and with seven seconds left in the three-minute overtime, he slipped in the winning points.

The victory climaxed a record cage year for Huron and coach Dave Court who finished with an overall 12-6 record. It was the first time in over a decade that the school has had a winning season.

Huron finished second in the conference to the newly crowned champs, Erie Mason. The Chiefs ended up with a 4-2 while Mason had a 5-1 mark.

Getting half of their points from soph center, 6-7 Rick Wasilewski and Jim Inman, the Chiefs staged a second half rally to catch the last place conference team.

The Chiefs found themselves looking up to a 18-14 first period deficit and again lacked four points to tying it up at halftime, 32-28.

Record performances by Chet Meyer and Phil Barr who were also double winners highlighted Belleville's upset victory over defending champs, Livonia Franklin, Saturday at the Fifth Annual Western Wayne Swimming Meet.

The meet, sponsored by the Associated Newspapers, saw a record field of nine schools compete for the coveted trophy.

Meyer picked up the 200 yard freestyle and the 400 yard freestyle in 2:00.5 and 4:26.4, respectively, setting a new WW record in the latter event.

Coach Bill Brandell received the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events on Phil Barr's outstanding performances. Barr was clocked in 23.5 to crush a record set by former Belleville tanker, Bob Renton. He earned the 100 on a judge's decision, when Craig Anderson of Franklin also turned in a 52.2.

The Tigers claimed their fifth first place on Sid Beavers' diving efforts. Beavers, trailing

Garden City West's Gene Sellers, came back with a 243

total after being behind as much as 29 points at one point.

Sellers settled for second with 226 points.

It was the second time in the meet's five year history that Belleville emerged as the champs. Coach Brandell's Tigers were also first in 1966.

Livonia Franklin, the defending champs, saw its hopes of retaining the title shattered

when its 400 yard freestyle relay was disqualified. The Patriot finished second with a total of 55 points.

In third place were Garden

City West tankers with 51 while

East was fourth, with 45; Wayne

Memorial, fifth with 41.

Robichaud (15), John Glenn

(10) were sixth and seventh, respectively, while tied for eight with four points each were Cherry Hill and Inkster, the two newcomers to the meet.

Wayne Federal Offers Free Golfing Lessons

For the third consecutive year, free golf lessons will be offered by Wayne Federal Savings and Loans Association at their indoor practice range on the lower level of the Association's main office building, in Wayne. The lessons begin this Saturday, March 2, and will be held every Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon throughout the golfing season.

A.G. Marriott, Jr., president of Wayne Federal, announced that Mike Sutko, local golf driving range operator, will handle the program again this year. "People really seem to enjoy Mike's lessons, because they come from all over this area to take part," Mr. Marriott said.

Wayne Federal's indoor range includes a driving mat and net as well as several "tee tutors," automatic devices that help golfers perfect their swings. Golfers should bring one club with them to the main office, 35150 Michigan Avenue, Wayne. Balls are provided by Wayne Federal, and each golfer receives a free name brand ball to keep at every lesson. Although golfers need not be Wayne Federal customers children under fourteen are not eligible to participate.

chipped in 16 while Martin and Mayfield added 14 and 13, respectively. Earlier in the week, coach Duv's boys nipped nonleague rival Inkster, 76-74, with Street again playing a stellar game. He sank 25 and was supported by Smith's 19 and Woods' 16 points. Johnican accounted for 12.

Winning six of their last seven starts, three close ones, brought this comment from the Romulus coach:

"It proves this team has character," said Duv. "At the early stages of the season we were 2-6 and looked like we would never get over the hump. "But these boys proved that they can play and I feel we're still going to surprise a lot of teams."

Reading Experiment in Pictures

AT JUNIOR HIGH New Reading Program Keeps Student Informed

BELLEVILLE -- Reading material such as paperback books, newspapers, and magazines are being used at Belleville Junior High School to gain student interest and to keep students informed, James Campbell, Assistant Principal, disclosed.

Eight teachers and eight sections of students are involved in a pilot program designed to see if reading habits and attitudes can be changed if students may select what they read. Approximately 230 students are involved.

The students will have access to numbers of paperback books, to newspapers, and to current periodicals, Campbell added.

Similar programs have proven successful in other states. This type program was initially used with a great deal of success by Dr. Daniel N. Fader at Whitmore Lake Training School.

TO GIVE students a chance to select books that they may keep, a paperback sales rack has been placed in the library. Students may buy books for class reading, or for pleasure, and when finished with the book it may be exchanged with another book. Over 400 books were sold during the first week of sales.

Teachers involved in this program have held weekly meetings to plan the usage of materials. Follow up meetings to evaluate results are planned.

it's 'Official' in Associated Newspapers

No matter where you live in Western Wayne County, one of the FIVE Associated Newspapers is the official legal publication of your community!

WHAT DOES THIS DESIGNATION MEAN?

TO YOU

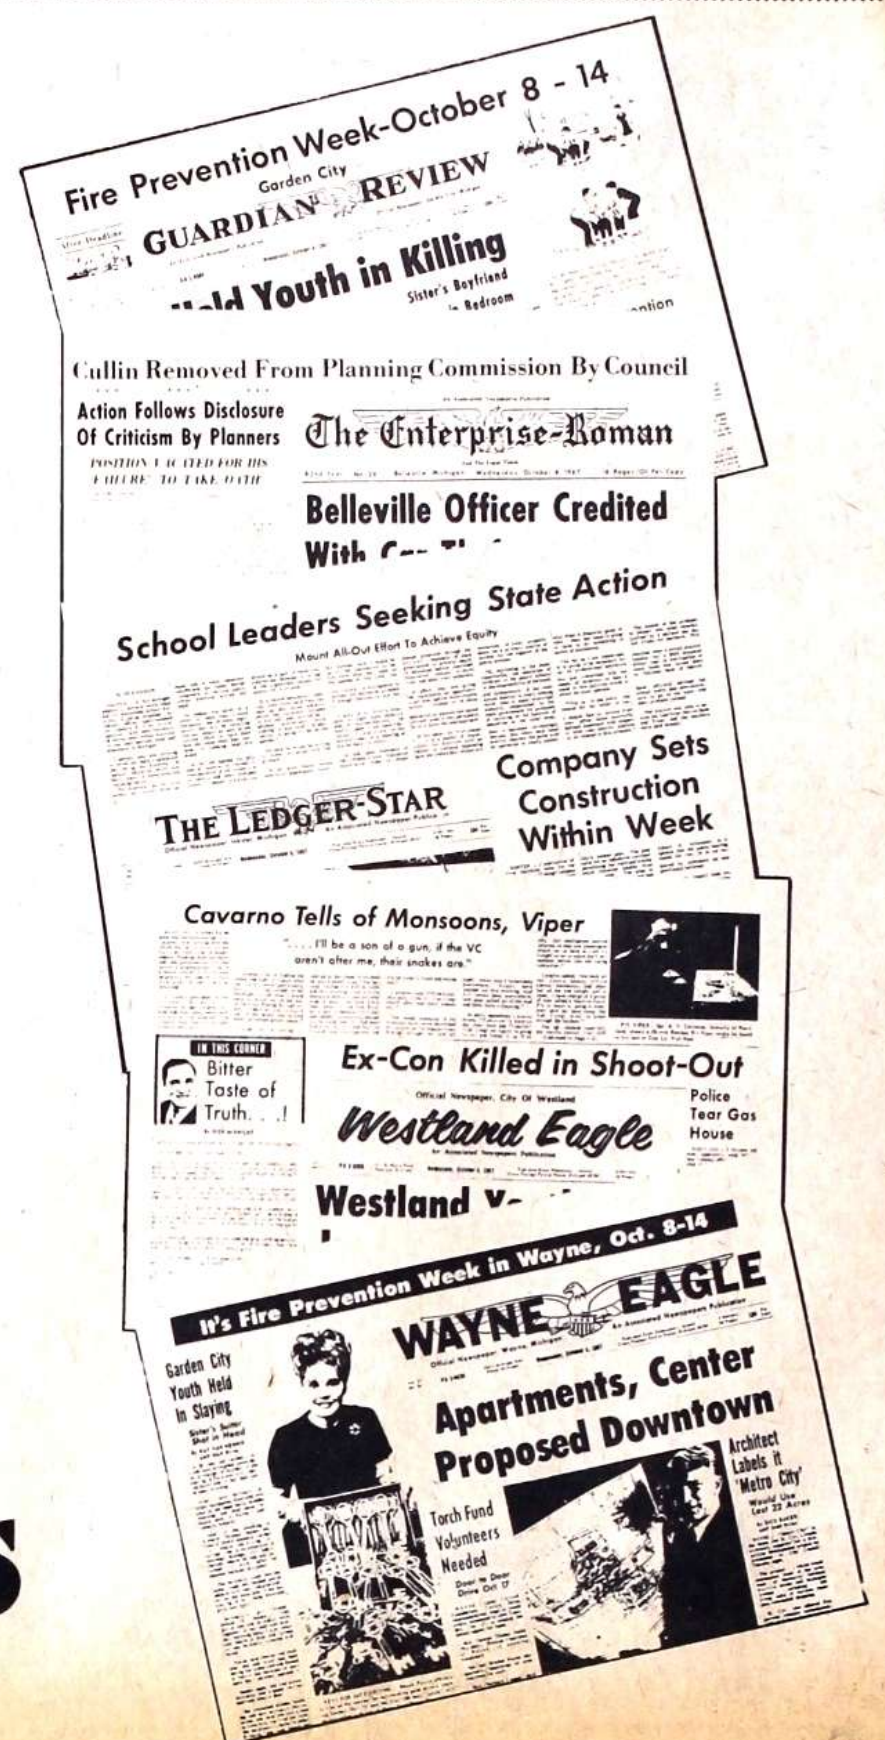

It means that ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you find the official actions of the various governmental bodies in your community. Western Wayne County is on the move. . . it's a vigorous, progressive area. New zoning ordinances are being approved . . . planning commissions are making decisions that may affect you and your property . . . your city council or township board may pass special assessments. . . changes are being considered in tax procedures. . . election details are vital. It is important you know of these varied actions--many of them affect you and your neighbors. And remember--ONLY in an Associated Newspaper can you read the "Official Proceedings!"

TO US

This means the governmental unit responsible for selecting an official publication in each community has demonstrated deep respect for the Associated Newspapers by awarding them this designation. This has been true not just this year but for many years in most of Western Wayne County areas. We are genuinely appreciative for this expression of confidence!

The MIG-15: Korea's 'Bogey-Man!'

By Bill Balogh

ALMOST EVERY DAY blaring headlines from the war far across the world in Vietnam blare forth with stories of United States Air Force aircraft engaged in aerial combat with Russian-built MIG jet fighters.

With very little praise about American aircraft and airmen, the emphasis seems constantly strong on the "Russian-built MIG's" in a fashion that almost gives the novice reader a picture of a Soviet super aircraft, an out-of-reach Bogey-man image, something to put fear or an inferiority complex to our air force.

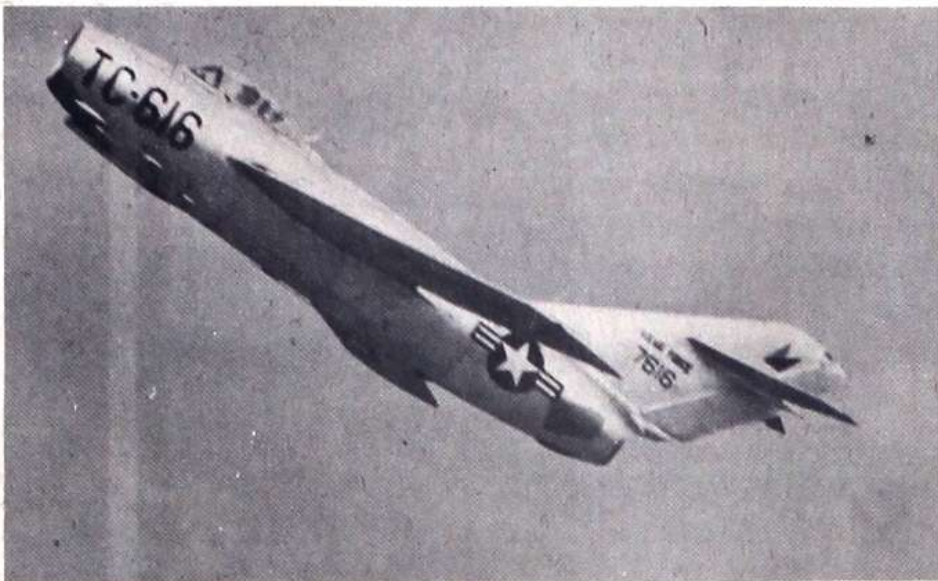

Admittedly it was such a hullabaloo that electrified and woke up our nation some 18 years ago during the Korean War. All of a sudden a new name in jet aircraft was being talked about throughout the world. And the rude awakening came when the North Korean Air Force, without warning, engaged the finest of United Nations' aircraft in air combat with a new concept in military jet fighters. It became the most talked about surprise aircraft in a decade . . . the Russian-built "MIG-15."

The sudden bally-hoo and propaganda made this Soviet-made jet fighter seem like something no one had ever dreamed of. It sounded invincible and uncatchable by our air forces. In essence, the impact of surprise was very similar to World War II days when the so-called-of slow, very poorly equipped and ill-trained Japanese Air Force broke out its famous "Zero" fighter and flew rings around everything the Allies had in the sky at the time.

As in World War II, our air force was quick in the Korean conflict to dispel the super-aircraft image and fast to counteract with new equipment, all in spite of the magnitude of publicity against it.

Likewise, the MIG-15 was indeed a very fine aircraft for its day and perhaps some years ahead of its time. The reputed designers, Artem Mikoyan and Mikhail Gurevich, had put their best foot forward with many innovations in their tiny jet fighter.

And, of course, with the "iron curtain" keeping the Soviet secrets under tightest

AHEAD OF ITS TIME-- This actual in-flight photo of the MIG-15 was taken by ANP's Bill Balogh just shortly after the craft fell into USAF hands in 1953. American insignia were painted on to avoid complications during flight and evaluation tests. The sleekness and clean new concept in fighter design, for its era, is self-evident.

wraps, the Western world had little or no knowledge of what was to be expected in the way of Russian military aircraft. Little or none, that is, until Sept. 23, 1953, when a defecting North Korean pilot delivered a brand new Russian-built MIG-15 into the hands of the United States Air Force at the Kimpo Air Base in Korea.

When the offer of the United States to return the plane to its rightful owners brought no reply, the MIG was immediately dismantled and airlifted via a huge USAF C-124 to an Air Force installation on Okinawa. After heavy secret flight testing and simulated combat flights with our own F-86 Saberjet and many other evaluation tests, the MIG was again dismantled and flown to the USAF research center at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base at Dayton, Ohio.

Complete testing, evaluation and research brought out many facts to disprove the superior "bogey-man" image. The tests unveiled many actual deficiencies in comparison to the USAF's F-86 Saberjet including lower maximum speed, poor cockpit comfort, insufficient stall warning and very poor heating and ventilating systems. The craft was further described as "just a light airplane with a big engine."

However, U.S. aviation experts of all fields were quick to admit high respect for the engineering and production techniques employed by the Russians, and especially for the fine quality that was otherwise evident throughout the aircraft. In many instances, it was said to be comparable to American standards.

For a military jet fighter, the MIG-15 was small when compared with U.S. fighters. Wing span was only 33-feet with a 42 degree sweepback. Its gross weight of 12,500 pounds was almost 4000 pounds lighter than the USAF Saberjet. The Russian powerplant was a copy of the British Nene engine with a rated 6000 pounds of thrust which could help it attain a speed of 584 knots (672 mph) with ease.

It did not take too long for the better trained, more aggressive American pilots to deal with the bogey-man superjet. The hard core training and heavier and more powerful equipment of the United States paid off. By the time the Korean War had ended, American pilots, flying aircraft "Made in USA", had blazed aerial combat history with a record score of eight MIGs shot down for each one of ours that was lost.

With these new jet fighters in the war torn skies above Korea, another new title was added to aviation history -- the Jet Ace. For the first time in aviation history, airmen had fought at near sonic speeds, seven miles in the heavens, with jet-powered aircraft.

There is a new, admittedly better and more advanced MIG-21 flying over Vietnam today. But there are also new F-4C Phantoms and F-105 Thunderchiefs and F-100s flying in the same skies for the USAF. And, so far at least, the air domination continues to rest with craft "Made in USA."

Troopers Look for Recruits

YPSILANTI - Young men who want challenging careers as troopers in the Michigan State Police are advised by Sgt. C.A. Walter, assistant commander of the Ypsilanti post, that opportunities to enlist in the department were never better.

The need for officers was occasioned by recent legislative approval for 225 more trooper positions, he said.

With this objective, specialist recruiters are intensifying their efforts to locate qualified applicants while the department plans overlapping of recruit schools to graduate as many troopers as possible by mid-year.

Eligible to apply for enlistment are men, 21 to 30 years old inclusive, who are high school graduates or the equivalent, and who are American citizens at least 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing at least 150 pounds with weight in proportion to height.

Sergeant Walter said that complete details on trooper careers may be obtained at any State Police post or by writing to the Michigan Civil Service Commission at Lansing.

"The pay schedule, job security, pension and many other benefits and advantages make State Police careers rank with the best in the police profession," Walter pointed out.

Trooper pay begins at a biweekly rate of $257.60, starting with recruit school, and then through automatic steps climbs to $361.60 after six years. A proposed pay raise would increase these levels to $272.88 and $383.20 if approved by the legislature. Troopers also have opportunity to take examinations for promotion which bring pay increases.

Sergeant Walter added that uniforms and equipment are provided, and other benefits are paid vacations, paid sick leave, and longevity pay after six years. Cost-shared insurance plans are available.

He noted that the State Police pension plan enables an officer to retire at half pay after only 25 years of service, still young enough to start another career if he desires. The pension also protects the officer's wife.

Piping provided by UNICEF in the last five years to give rural communities clean water supplies would stretch the distance between Montreal and New Orleans.

Local Honey Bee Club
Warns of Bee Neglect

ROMULUS -- Without the honey bee, man could not survive, according to Dale Maki, president of the "Busy Honey Bee Club" of Belleville. The bee's art of pollination is essential for agricultural produce.

It is true that butterflies and a few other winged insects pollinate to a small extent, but the pollination from the bees make up over 95% of the total.

Without the bee, the human population would be starving, and before too long, would become near extinct, according to Maki. These are alarming true to life facts that few people realize, and less do anything about.

We hear that the sun is gradually burning itself up and in so many billions of years it will burn out. This we can hardly accept and feel no need to do anything about.

The same is true with the bees except that we can do something about this -- but our bees are becoming less and less abundant. They are being greatly neglected; when will it be too late? Man is poisoning them with uncontrolled spraying, city ordinances are trying to prohibit beekeeping in their districts -- bee neglect is becoming dangerous.

Fortunately, however, some efforts are being made to overcome this situation. The Department of Agriculture is taking vital steps in this area, as are some universities throughout the world. In this community there is a 4-H Club called the "Busy Honey Bee Club," under the leadership of Joseph Howard, who is a State Bee Inspector in Michigan. All the members of the club have at least one hive and some have 10 and 20 hives. They all read a lot on beekeeping and have practical experience working with their hives.

By selling the honey from their hives, they earn money toward a college education. Most important, they have the privilege of witnessing the most valuable insect performing one of nature's most vital operations.

Interested boys and girls between the ages of nine and 18 are invited to join the club. Just contact Joseph Howard at 697-7002 or Dale Maki club president.

Promote bees and honey in anyway you can, the club urges. An ex-member of the Busy Honey Bee Club, Donna Curry, has gone on to become the Michigan Honey Queen. She is promoting bees and honey in every way that she can.

Let us support all these efforts and appreciate the essential job the laborious bees do for mankind.

4-H AUTOMOTIVE PROGRAM UNDERWAY --- Donald D. Juchartz, president of the Belleville Rotary Club and County Extension Agent, (left) is shown with Carl Miller, director of Youth Programs at Firestone Tire and Rubber Company at a recent initiation of the 4-H Automobile Program on care and safety, now being held as a pilot program for Michigan in the Westland-Wayne-Livonia areas.

4-H Automotive Program Initiated

The 4-H concept has come to the area with a youth automotive program. The program took its first public steps at a kick-off dinner at the Red Carpet at Westland Center.

Highlighting the evening was the detailing of the program by members of the 4-H and the formation of the steering committee.

The 4-H Automotive Program on care and safety will be run in the Westland-Wayne area, and is intended to be the pilot program for the state of Michigan.

Westland-Wayne was selected as the pilot area chiefly because it has the local resources to make the program successful according to 4-H officials. Unlike many other 4-H programs, this one cannot work without total community cooperation.

THE PROGRAM is intended to develop safe driving attitudes among 14 and 15-year-olds and give them a positive driving image before they reach legal driving age.

Dr. Gordon Beckstrand, program director for 4-H in Michigan, said that although 4-Hs have been traditionally rural in its programs, it has now organized more programs to appeal to the urban youth.

Donald Osborn, national service committeeman, added that this program, unlike other 4-H programs, is the only one "that affects life and death."

"However, this program is not intended to compete with or detract from the driver education program already in existence in Michigan," according to Robert White, agricultural engineer at Michigan State University.

The 4-H program in every state is handled by the extension program of the land-grant college; in Michigan that means Michigan State University.

Assistance to the program is provided by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, Carl Miller, director of Firestone's Youth Programs, said that his company became involved because this program offers something to the urban youth. Firestone believes, Miller said, that not enough is done for youth in the area of automotive training.

TIGER TALES

By MARY PAPUZYNSKI

Preparations for the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance which is sponsored by the TNT staff at Belleville High are completed. Committees have been chosen, a band selected, a date set, and the poster contest started.

The theme of this year's dance will emphasize leap year. As in previous years this dance will be held on Friday, March 22, in the school's cafeteria from 8 until 11 p.m.

Committees have been established and chairmen chosen. The general chairman of the dance will be Sharon McCaffrey, Sharon Scheffler is chairman of Marketing Sam, Debbie Sienkiewicz chairman of Decorations, Bill Bujak and Kate Wenzel are chairmen of Coat Check, Sharon McCaffrey is chairman of Tickets, Gene Charrette is chairman of Publicity, and Bill Coffman and Mary Papuzynski are chairmen of Refreshments.

Each chairman is responsible for recruiting workers, organizing and setting up their stands, and ordering necessary materials.

"ABSOLUTELY BETA" will be the highlight of the dance. A recently formed band of Belleville High students, Members of the band are: Rod Soja, Ken Horste, John Horste, Darwin Scott, and Rich Miller.

A poster contest will be sponsored by the staff. Any student wishing to make a poster for Sadie Hawkins may pick up the rules for entering it in Room 233. Prizes will be awarded for the top three posters.

The staff of the TNT hopes to make this their most successful dance with the help of every student it can be. So mark this date on your calendar of events to attend.

BHS Sophomore class of 1970 ordered their class rings last October. At that time they were to put at least a $10 deposit on their rings. Now their rings are due to arrive on March 6. At this time students will pay the balance on their rings and receive them.

THE SOPHOMORES had many varieties of colors in which to choose from. The girls rings came in two styles, the regular and the princess style (which is a diamond shape). The boys came in the traditional round style. Decorating the rings are a tiger, the schools emblem, and the year in which they graduate.

Juniors wishing to compete for Merit Scholarships or other awards administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation are taking a National Merit Test Tuesday Feb. 27.

Interested students paid a fee of one dollar to take this test. Approximately one hundred students signed up for this test. The test will consist of five parts - English Usage, Mathematics Usage, Social Studies Reading, Natural Science Reading, and Word Usage. The exam is scheduled to last two hours and thirty five minutes.

TEST SCORES will be reported to students sometime during May, at this time students will receive a Handbook for Merit Program Participants with their score.

Does the senior class at BHS have a lot of school spirit? Maybe all of them don't but at least twelve of them do. On Friday Feb. 16, twelve boys from the senior class dribbled a basketball to Plymouth, Michigan, 14 1/2-miles away, to display their school spirit for our basketball team.

Troop 1071 Reports Election

By David Baldwin

BELLEVILLE -- Boy Scout Troop 1071 of Belleville has done a lot since they held elections.

The boys of the troop elected Jeff French as Senior Patrol leader, David Papuzynski as Assistant Senior Patrol leader, David Baldwin for Scribe and Mark Jordan for Quartermaster.

The Scout Master, Tim Baldwin, appointed Darrell Featheringill as Troop Bugler.

One of the things is that the troop has a bottle and paper drive going. If you have any papers or bottles you would like to get rid of contact David Baldwin (OX 7-7124) or David Papuzynski (699-6001).

Another thing that they did was that they went sledding and tobogganing and on the way up there the bus was hit on the left side on Silver Lake road by a ranger that was going about 35 to 40 miles an hour.

The ranger just scraped the paint off and no one was hurt. Bruin Lake is another place they went to. They slept in a cabin and it got to be 15 degrees below zero that night.

They left BHS at 2:45 p.m. and dribbled and passed the ball in pairs of two. The boys completed their journey in hours. The boys who made this trip are: Bill Coffman, Doug Gazal, Paul Hall, Bruce McLaren, Ron Myszkowski, Dave Riley, Don Stabenau, Skip Summer, Ron Swinton. The organizers of this journey were: Rich Adler and Jim Bloom.

The Sophomore candy sale ended Friday, Feb. 16. The winners are as follows, they are listed according to sales.

The first place winner is David Papuzynski, second place winner is Diane Epling, Third place winner is Alan Rice, Fourth place winner is Gloria Peterson, Fifth place winner is Jim Smallish, Sixth place winner is Daryl Bauman, Seventh place winner is Mike Burwell, Eight place winner is Charolette Leonard, Ninth place winner is Jan Southerland, Tenth place winner is Wendell Alford, Eleventh place winner is Tim Locharie, Twelfth place winner is Jeanette LaFramboise, Thirteenth place winner is Debbie Knox, Fourteenth place winner is Greg Schwartzberger.
